ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA MOURNS THE LOSS OF STEVE JOBS

Chicago, Illinois – October 6, 2011 - Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority’s international president, Attorney Carolyn House Stewart, announced that the Sorority joins the world in mourning the loss of Steve Jobs.

She said that his contribution to advancing the world has no peer and no parallel.

“Once in a lifetime,” declared Stewart, “someone comes along who transforms the global landscape through innovation, passion and forward-thinking vision. Steve Jobs was such a man. Today, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority extends tributes to him for presiding over an era that saw technological leaps. These advances revolutionized the way we communicate and ushered in a bold new way of connecting to the world.”

“We extend condolences to his immediate family and to the worldwide community who all benefited from his generous gift and talent.”
