Sorority Aims to Impact the Lives of Area Residents

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® to donate personal care products to local organizations.

(October 1, 2023) – Nearly 1000 members of the nation’s first Black sorority, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® (AKA), will gather Saturday, October 7, 2023, at the W.F. “Bill” Harris State Fair Arena in Birmingham for the South Eastern Region Cluster VII meeting. The women are expected to bring thousands of feminine hygiene products to donate to local organizations that support women and girls.

According to South Eastern Regional Director Tracey Morant Adams, Ph.D., the Cluster represents an opportunity to contribute to the host community. “We are here to conduct the business of AKA; however, we care to show up as compassionate citizens who serve others. This is in keeping with our mission of service to all mankind,” Adams said.

Birmingham is expected to be the largest gathering of the eight Cluster meetings that AKA is hosting across the South Eastern region this year. At each meeting, the organization will collect and donate personal care items for women and girls.

“We chose this community because of its ability to host a membership organization of our size and for the great Southern hospitality here. We are delighted to welcome our members to the Magic City,” said Adams.

The day-long meeting begins at 8:30 am on October 7, 2023.
