America's First Sorority of African American Women to Convene in Memphis, TN for Statewide Meeting

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® South Eastern Region to donate several hundred books to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Memphis

(October 19, 2024) – One local charity will receive a deluge of children's books when more than 1,200 women representing the South Eastern Region (SER) of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® (AKA) arrive for the Tennessee Statewide Cluster, Saturday, October 19, 2024. The day-long meeting at Renasant Convention Center will focus on business matters and initiatives of the oldest Black Greek letter organization for women in the U.S.

In keeping with Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's legacy of service and uplifting communities, the members of AKA will bring new books to donate to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Memphis. The community service project is intended to help enrich the reading and comprehension skills of local students in kindergarten through third grade.

According to AKA South Eastern Regional Director Dr. Tracey Morant Adams, the city of Memphis location, meeting facilities, hotel accommodations, and overall hospitality provide the ideal setting for the business meeting.

"Memphis graciously welcomed more than 6,000 of our members for the 90th South Eastern Regional Conference in March 2022, and we are thrilled to be back in the Bluff City for a phenomenal Cluster experience," said Adams.

The meeting is one of three Clusters hosted by the SER this year. SER is comprised of approximately 119 chapters and more than 13,000 members in Tennessee, Mississippi, and Alabama.
